

This list is part of our annual “Article 29 – TCFD combined report” and the products within are disclosed in compliance with the French Monetary and Financial Code article D. 533-16-1, section III paragraph (1.c). The products or strategies discussed in this document may not be registered nor available in your jurisdiction.

To the extent SFDR has been applicable for a relatively short period of time, the classification under SFDR is subject to adjustments and amendments, as certain aspects of SFDR may be subject to new and/or different interpretations than those existing at the date of this Report. As part of the ongoing assessment and current process of classifying its financial products under SFDR, AXA IM reserves the right, in accordance with and within the limits of applicable regulations and legal documentation applicable to its financial products, to amend the classification of a particular fund to reflect changes in market practice, in its own interpretations, in SFDR-related laws or regulations or in currently-applicable delegated regulations, in communications from national or European authorities or court decisions clarifying SFDR interpretations. Investors are reminded that they should not base their investment decisions on the classification presented pursuant to SFDR.
